

THE HORSE ~ NAME, PEDIGREE, SHOW/PERFORMANCE RECORD:

Pluto Matina, 2004 Lipizzan Stallion, has consistently placed in the ribbons at the USDF/USEF breed shows. His scores have ranged from 62% to 76%. From Fair Hill, Dressage at Devon and PVDA breed shows. Harald Bauer from the Spanish Riding School in Vienna commented that this guy has a great brain and movement, very willing. Frodo has a great and always willing temperament, he is of more sport horse in type. His disposition, character, ability and softness are truly what dreams are made of! This is all mixed with his great confirmation.

Show History:

Fair Hill USDF show 8-18-07 Pluto Matina placed 2nd in the open sport horse class with a score of 68.6 and first in the Lipizzan class with a score of 70.4 At Devon 2007 Frodo placed 8th out of 25 at Dressage at Devon 3 year old colt class judged by Hilda Gurney and received a score of 74.6%! This class was made up of all kinds of warmbloods from Hanoverians, Selle Francies, Oldenburgs and more.

PROGENY:

Pluto Matina's offspring are very trainable with very correct confirmation big bold movement and wonderful dispositions.
